All the ingredients used come primarily from regional and sustainable production or are sourced directly from farmers.

For our seafood dishes, we prioritize selecting fair vendors and ensuring traceable origins.

The trout is either freshly caught from Lake Thara or sourced from local fishermen.

For more information about our production processes, you can find it in our journal.

No joke: Fritz has fish!

Whether it's bass, turbot, or gilt-head bream, sometimes something special swims in! Whole, to share, and really fresh.
